New and Stylish Millinery for Fall and Winter

Dainty creations in French and American Millinery were never more exquisite than they are this season. The Big Store's showing of elegant Hats, Toques and Bonnets is at its best now. With all the added beauty and styles, prices were never so reasonable as now. Every trimmed hat we show is bright, new and becoming; the coming shapes for fall and winter hats, and are unlike any that have gone before. Our display gives a splendid presentation of the most elegant millinery of both hemispheres. A word as to prices: The Big Store will continue to sell the best and most stylish hats at the low prices that have made the Big Store's millinery the most popular in Chicago.

LOOK INTO

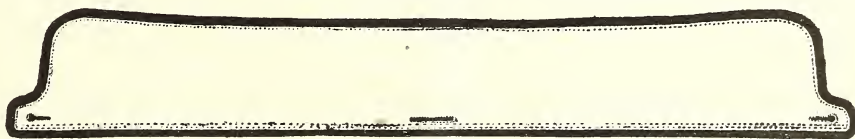

The Collar Question

Some men seem to think that, after all, a "collar's a collar," and that's all there is to it; so they buy for themselves what they see their friends wearing, and as long as it's clean and buttons around the neck they "let it go at that."

to wear 'em. They allow for the slope of your shoulders, and this lets the collar "hug your neck"—allows it to "give" properly, and makes a free and easy fit at the same time.

The ordinary collar is simply a straight cut-out piece and is made up like this:

BEAUTIFUL

HAIR SKIN

What a mantle of beauty is the hair! It bends to a thousand caprices of the taste. It can be braided, curled, crimped, waved or tied, to harmonize with the features; made to multiply a hundred-fold the beauty of every face, and to bring forth new beauties and effects, or hide in its infinite labyrinths many defects. It is therefore the duty of everyone to protect and preserve their hair and scalp. Irritated, itching and eruptive scalps are permanently cured and speedily cleared of dandruff, scale and crust; the hair preserved, purified and beautified and its brilliancy, lustre and natural color restored.

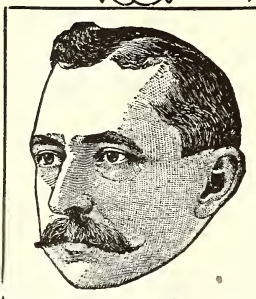

The clearest, whitest, smoothest skin, free from wrinkle, pimple, spot or blemish, is obtained by Woodbury's Special Facial Treatment, the most effective means to purify, beautify and clear a clouded complexion and restore the skin to a healthy, natural state. Eczema, acne, salt rheum, scaly eruptions; pale, sallow or dingy skin; red, rough, oily or dry skin; moth blotches, liver spots, tan, freckles, sunburn, and all skin affections. Sleeplessness, irritability, loss of energy, nervousness, and all disorders of the blood, no matter from what cause or how long standing, are speedily, safely and successfully treated, and a permanent cure effected.

Call or write for descriptive circular of COLORISIS, the wonderful one-bottle preparation that instantly restores gray or faded hair to natural color, and renders bleached hair any desired shade : : : : :

Consultation in person or by letter is free, and strictly confidential : :

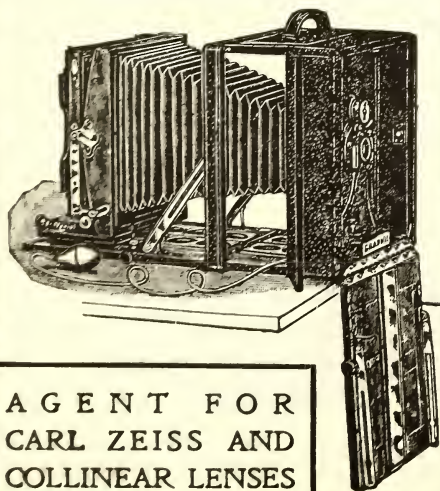

Imperfect and deformed features painlessly corrected. Wrinkles, moles, warts, superfluous hair, and all disfiguring blemishes permanently removed, leaving no trace of former existence : : : : :

VIOLA ALLEN

And company, presenting Lorimer Stoddard's dramatization of F. Marion Crawford's romantic novel

In the Palace of the King

Miss Allen's support will include: William Norris, Marcia Van Dresser, Gertrude Norman, Robert T. Haines, Edgar L. Davenport, C. Leslie Allen, Clarence Handyside, Charles Kent and Catherine Curtis. In all, Miss Allen's company for this season numbers sixty people

"It breathes the air of Castilian romance, and has the same charm as the Fortuny Sketches of the Alhambra. In the love passages Miss Allen is delightful, in the heroic scenes she is forceful and convincing. The story is developed by a cast of undoubted skill and set with notable brilliancy."—Baltimore Sun.

Boston Special.

Take a pint of fresh crab meat, chop very fine, add one-half pint of bread crumbs, season with salt and pepper and mix thoroughly. Roll one dozen Shrewsbury's in this preparation, dip them in light egg batter and also in the crumbs again. Place on a fresh butter in a very hot pan and fry slowly.

Crab Meat a la Maryland.

Take about a pint of crab meat, one hard-boiled egg, chop very fine, add one tablespoonful of butter and one-half pint of pure cream, season thoroughly, place in pan, and cook for eight or nine minutes. Thicken with cream sauce, and when cooked thoroughly, add a glass of sherry; serve in chafing-dish.

California Oyster Cocktail.

Take eight Blue Points and open over an iced glass, being careful to save all the liquor; season with two dessert spoonfuls of Snider's Catsup, six drops of lemon juice, two drops of Lea & Perrin's Worcestershire Sauce, a dash of Tabasco Sauce, season with salt and pepper, put in small lump of ice and serve.

Stuffed Lobster.

Take a boiled or steamed lobster, split, remove the meat and chop fine, mix a heavy cream sauce with some chopped parsley, season thoroughly with salt, pepper and paprika and place back in shell; cover lightly with bread crumbs and a little melted butter, brown slowly and serve hot.

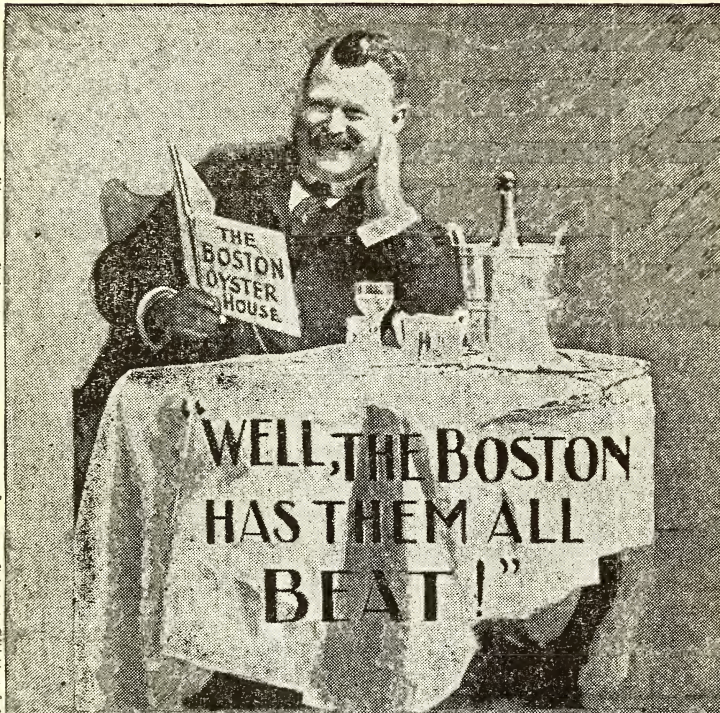

Stewed Lobster.

Take a live lobster, cut in small squares, cook slowly in fresh butter and add a cup of cream sauce, season with Lea & Perrin's Worcestershire Sauce and a little curry powder, salt and pepper, serve on slices of buttered toast.

Broiled Live Lobster.

Split a live female lobster, place a piece of rice paper soaked in fresh melted butter over the head, place in a double broiler, season with salt and pepper, and baste from time to time while broiling. Remove paper and serve with B. O. H. Sauce.

Oysters B. P. O. E.

Take the center of four stalks of celery, chop very fine, cook thoroughly with fresh butter, put in one cup of rich cream, season with salt, pepper and paprika, then add a dozen freshly opened Hockaways, put in a glass of old Madeira and serve very hot in chafing-dish.

Broiled Oysters - Celery Sauce.

Take a dozen large Shrewsbury's, roll lightly in bread crumbs, place them on a fine wire oyster broiler, baste with butter, and brown lightly over a very hot fire, season thoroughly, and serve on toast with celery sauce.

Finnan Haddock a la Delmonico.

Take a half of a finnan haddock, pick up and cook in fresh butter, adding a cup of pure cream, one hard-boiled egg cut in small squares, the yolk of a raw egg and one teaspoonful of grated Parmesan cheese, thicken with a cream sauce, season with salt and pepper and a dash of cayenne, cook slowly for ten minutes, serve in a chafing dish with small pieces of dry toast.

Lobster a la Newburg.

Split and remove the meat of a whole live lobster, cut into pieces about one-half an inch long, braise with fresh butter, add a cup of heavy cream sauce, season with salt and pepper, when thoroughly heated add the yolk of one raw egg and one glass of Madeira, serve in chafing-dish with small pieces of dry toast.

Spring Chicken - B. O. H. Style.

Put a young chicken in iced water, adding a little salt, unjoint and roll in flour; put in the frying-pan three ounces of butter and one-half cup of cream, when hot put in the chicken and season thoroughly, put on cover and fry till brown; make sauce of cream and flour to thicken, let simmer and pour over chicken and serve hot.

Welsh Rarebit.

To make a rarebit, put a gill of stale beer in a copper saucepan, add a dash of Worcestershire Sauce, a pinch of paprika and one-half teaspoonful of mustard, and one-third pound of grated cheese, then whip the same until it creams, after which add the yolks of two eggs, and serve on toast, having first dipped the toast in beer, which will impart a fine flavor to it. Serve the rarebit hot on a red-hot plate.

 buttonholes are big enough and limber enough to be adjusted without pulling and twisting, and you don't need a button hook or wet fingers, either. If you've tried 'em, you know what our Quarter-Size Collars are—they're a complete, highly finished line, in sizes varying just ¼ of an inch, and all carefully cut to accurate measures

FULFILLMENT OF PROPHECY

When the masters of immortal name, Wagner, Mendelssohn, Schuman, Liszt and Joachim, foreshadowed that the tendencies of improvement in modern pianos must be toward the realization of tonal beauties, approximating in volume and quality the human voice, they could not foresee that professional opinions of the greatest living artists indicate that their prophecy finds its fulfillment in the product of a Chicago factory—the KIMBALL. This piano bears the proud distinction of being used at the present day as the artistic supplement to the human voice in the home studies of Patti, Fames, Nordica and other artists of the highest rank. —Ch'go Tribune.

Miss Viola Allen

At the formal opening of Miss Allen's season at the National Theatre, Washington, on Monday evening, September 24th, in Lorimer Stoddard's dramatization of F. Marion Crawford's Novel, "In the Palace of the King," the play and the actress achieved a notable triumph. In this drama Miss Allen is given a fine opportunity to display her splendid talents. In the love scenes her acting has been highly commended as being true and womanly; but in the heroic passages Miss Allen is called upon to display the fullest bent of her powers as an emotional actress.

"In the Palace of the King" is a drama of intensity and power. It is a play that appeals to all hearts, love being the theme. The hero and heroine of "In the Palace of the King," are Don John of Austria brother of Philip the 2nd, and Dona Dolores De Mendoza, daughter of the captain of the household guard. Philip and his mistress, the beautiful Princess of Eboli (Marcia Van Dresser), conspire to separate the lovers and ruin Dolores. The troubles of the lovers and the final overthrow of the King and his mistress, is the basis of the story. In this play there are four powerfully effective situations: the meeting of Don

John (John T. Haines) and Dolores (Miss Allen), the stabbing of the Cardinal (Edgar L. Davenport), by Philip (Charles Kent), Dolores refuses to obey her father's dictates and give up Don John, and the denunciation, by Dolores, of Philip from the throne. The supporting company is one of great excellence and the scenery and costumes of regal splendor.

FOR

Every Home

THE PIANOLA is an instrument by means of which anyone can play the piano. It is making players of people who, lacking musical training, had never expected to experience the pleasure of producing music for themselves.

It is increasing the repertoire of amateur and professional pianists by making the entire literature of the piano instantly available without study and without practice.

It makes a dancing party with old-fashioned quadrilles possible every evening. It enables you to give a concert every afternoon such as only a Paderewski or Joseffy could equal.

The Pianola looks like a small cabinet. It has small felt-covered fingers that rest on the keys of the piano and, operated by pneumatic power, strike the keys with a pliant, yielding and remarkably sympathetic touch that is identical with that of the human fingers. When not in use, the Pianola may be easily rolled away from the piano and moved to another part of the room.

The Pianola is musically artistic, therefore it is a source of pleasure to everyone. To this, Paderewski and all the critics everywhere agree.

MAY BE HEARD DAILY AT OUR WAREROOMS. You are cordially invited to make a visit of inspection, the next time you are down town. Visitors are not asked to buy.

The Pianola sold on the installment plan if desired.

CORSET PAINS—A woman once said she liked to wear a corset because it was such a relief when she took it off. So long as Fashion makes women wear corsets, they will continue to squeeze their bodies into shapes never intended by Nature, and they will also continue to suffer. The pain and discomfort won't be so bad, however, if they will rub themselves every night with a little Omega Oil. This relaxes the squeezed-up flesh and muscles, takes out the soreness and has a wonderfully soothing effect. The woman who wants to get up in the morning feeling fine, ought to get some Omega Oil right away and use it.

Omega Oil is for sale in most drug stores. Any druggist can get a supply of his wholesaler. If your dealer does not keep it, the Omega Chemical Co., 257 Broadway, New York, will mail you a bottle, prepaid, if you will send 50c. In cash, money order or stamps.

...EFFECTIVE ADVERTISING...

A most attractive novelty is being given wide distribution just now by the Washington Shirt Co.—"Furnishers to His Majesty the American Citizen"—and it is nothing more or less than a simple blotter, such as most busy men use twenty times a day; only this particular blotter is made in the likeness of a veritable cuff; striped and colored in the most approved style, with button holes, stitching, round corners, and all faithfully reproduced.

So complete is the illusion that when seen laying on the desk or counter it is apparently a real cuff or pair of cuffs, bearing the imprint of this popular firm. It is just such advertising that "sets people talking," and the general "up-to-date-ness" of the advertising and business methods employed by this firm accounts, in a large measure, for the constantly increasing patronage which the Washington Shirt Co. enjoys in its two Chicago stores.

Mr. Gillette's Stoicism.

On the night of the Baldwin Theatre fire in San Francisco, when the "Secret Service" property and manuscript of Mr. Gillette's new play were destroyed, his dresser rushed to his hotel and banged loudly on the door.

"Who's there?" drawled Mr. Gillette.

"Me," answered the excited dresser.

"Well, what do you want?"

"Oh, sir! the Baldwin Theatre's all burned down and so's the hotel."

"Anything the matter with this hotel?"

"No, sir."

"All right; come around tomorrow morning about eight and tell me about it."

Mr. Gillette also remarked on another occasion: "Orangeine is a wonderful remedy. It aids my nerves, stomach and liver, and prominent physicians, who have tested the formula, call it a wonderfully useful combination of curative agencies."
